The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claimed invention is novel over the cited references because said references fail to teach or suggest a polishing composition (and method of use), wherein the polishing composition comprises the claimed specific components and other limitations. Throughout the specification, criticality is shown for the claimed specific amount of colloidal silica, as well as, the claimed specific pH and specific combination claimed. The reference cited on the 892 is not seen to teach the claimed invention because when ammonia is used in the reference, the pH is disclosed as being outside the claimed range. In addition, when ammonium nitrate is disclosed as being used, it is not used in the claimed combination.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any foreign language documents submitted by applicant has been considered to the extent of the short explanation of significance, English abstract or English equivalent, if appropriate.
